We had a great week at VBS with the highest attendance of 51. The kids learned, through our Bible stories, memory verses, and songs, how to become a part of God’s Team.

A big Thank You for the following VBS Team:

The ladies that painted the back drops, set up and take down crew, teachers, leaders, recreation group, those that made cookies, and everyone that prayed for our VBS week!

Jeff and Susan Kendle would like to thank everyone for your prayers, cards, calls, and visits during Susan’s recent heart surgery. They have been blessed by all the love shown to them.

ONE AMERICAN FAMILY

Moods of excitement traveling through the crowd of people here tonight, patriotic feelings running high, everyone loving being here to honor our Vets for their service.

Children wearing patriotic tee - shirts, dresses, headbands of red, white and blue. American flags being waved by toddlers, enjoying feelings of happiness and joy being exuded.

Parents, Grandparents, Aunts, Uncles, and cousins all being a part of one American family, united for one purpose under God to celebrate the U.S.A.

Our freedom also being hailed, Independence Day, a totally wonderful time in all of our lives, appreciating our Vets, nation and one another today!
